Retrospect
Volume 62

Freshman Year

We walked through new doors, our faces alight
With the buses and cars disappearing from sight
For we were now freshmen; our old schools behind
We glared at each other as the two towns combined

As we entered the halls, small game ran amok
We sat through our classes, and cursed our bad luck
For the new school before us looked moldy and old
And the portables were either too hot or too cold

The periods were long and numbered but four
Like the tables stretched 'cross the lunchroom floor
And in our homerooms and all through the halls
Crazy Mike Sheehan played music for all

For one week in winter, school was snowed out
And Red Sox pride was still seen all about
There were no arguments when we wore pink
Yet the rain on Thanksgiving caused the players to sink

As summer approached, a new building arose
The seniors soon brought their last year to a close
Lockers were painted and doors were torn down
And freshmen departed with new friends they'd found

Sophomore Year

As we passed the rubble and approached a new year
Off in the distance a new school appeared
We pondered our schedules and identical floors
And we entered the building as rising sophomores

The school was still fresh, and smelled of new paint
But the chemical spills caused students to faint
We threw away our drinks and discarded our snacks
The freshman wore pink and not red, white, or black

We walked through the lobby, and all through the halls
Wide-screened TVs were lining the walls
The football games were held in daylight, you see
For everyone was worried about triple E

As the year came to a close, the semi grew near
One step into the cafeteria confirmed all our fears
The lights were ablaze, and the students enraged
They danced the night away despite their dismay

Underclassmen no more, high school was half done
We'd experienced much stress, & we'd had much fun
Confronted with MCAS and PSATs
Just two more years and we'd finally be free

Senior Class History

By: AP English Classes

Junior Year

The summer had ended, to school we returned
With completed assignments we started a new term
The school was familiar, the same we left behind
Yet new schedules faced us, for the third time

A parking lot was opened a mile away
And the freshman were instructed to don shades of grey
During the rally and in powder-puff that year
We juniors sent the seniors a message quite clear

The Improbable Players graced our stage yet again
And the performance of Macbeth soon followed that trend
And though we were educated about William Shakespeare
Unfortunately we found that it was Ms. Grunin's last year

For the junior prom ticket, we paid our class dues
We rented our tuxes and shined up our shoes
Into the limos and trolleys we climbed
And at the Canoe Club, we had a good time

With our third year completed, we approached # 4
As the caps of the senior class lined the gym floor
And as we advanced, as seniors of our school
We bid a farewell to Principal Pamela Gould

Senior Year

For hopefully the last year, we reentered our school
As seniors with confidence we established our rule
We were introduced to our new principal, his name, Mr. Lee
And following his instruction, we displayed our I.D.s

With college and SATs weighing heavily on our minds
Homework and jobs consumed our spare time
With a class trip to Salem occurring 'round Halloween
Some stress was relieved, and vague hope was seen

On rally day that year, we were dressed black as night
But third period was disturbed with sirens and strobe lights
We filed out reluctantly into the frigid autumn air
And for the snow that was falling, we were quite unprepared

To combat the frostbite and the unexpected snow
We were ushered into the gym to witness a show
The Broken-Legge Tones brought us dancing to our feet
And the green senior dragon made the rally complete

And now as we look to the future, & the close of the year
It is doubtless that our memories of high-school are dear
And whatever awaits us, if it is indeed our fate
We shall be prepared to face it as the Class of '08.

The Class of 2008

We Are...

Dear Classmates and Friends,

In the past year we, the editors, have put hard work and time into the production of the 2007-2008 Restrospect Yearbook. This process calls for dedication, patience, time and effort that the yearbook staff has achieved. Throughout the past year we have experienced many memories, some good and some demanding, but it was a privilege to put the yearbook together for everyone.

A yearbook is more than just a scrapbook of pictures of friends and classmate throughout your high school years; a yearbook is a book of memories that will never fade away. We want to thank everyone, our friends, classmates, teachers and faculty, for all of the memories that helped make this book possible. We hope years from now you can look back one day and remember all of the great memories of high school and what it means to be part of WhitmanHanson.

The Editors

Erika Johndrow, Samantha Baldwin, Rachel Saftler, Kathleen Collins, Colleen Coughlin & Michael Saconne

Dear Students and Friends of the WhitmanHanson Community,

This is a special year for me, because four years ago, I came to WhitmanHanson Regional High School for the first time, and just as seniors entered the old building as freshmen, I also made that my home for a year before moving up to this beautiful construction atop the hill. Coming full-circle, I have grown as a teacher and adviser through my four years here, and I often consider how my own journey has paralleled that of the Class of 2008. Watching you expand horizons both socially and intellectually has been a highlight for me and being able to document the history that brought you closer to graduation has been a privilege.

This yearbook is all about what makes WH tick, and for each of you that might be different. What remains the same is what you have been offered here, an education by teachers and administrators who care about the success of each one of you as individuals. Remember what you learned here, whether it be through a class, an activity or sport, or any special moment that made an impression upon you from your years at WhitmanHanson. Draw from that experience when you're out in the world and it will always be said that you are "Spirited, Open-Minded, Enthusiastic, Outgoing, Unique, Talented," and so much more. Good luck and much success in all you do!

Mrs. Shea

School's finally over, it's all said and done, shot by so fast etc, etc. Point is, There are certain things I'm going to miss about this school. In particular, my best friends, Steve, Kristen, John, Brendan and Steph will always be with me. Waking up this early is getting ridiculous so that'll be over for a little while at least. This school was ballin' and I can't believe it's actually over.

Blessid Union Of Souls
Hey leonardo (she likes me for me)

She don't care about my car
She don't care about my money
And that's real good cause I don't got alot to spend
But if I did it woul'dn't mean nothin'

She likes me for me
Not because I look like Tyson Beckford
With the charm of Robert Redford
Oozing out my ears
But what she sees
Are my faults and indecisions
My insecure conditions
And the tears upon the pillow that I shed

She don't care about my big screen
Or my collection of DVDs
Things like that just never mattered much to her
Plus she don't watch too much TV

And she don't care that I can fly her
To places she ain't never been
But if she really wants to go I think deep down she knows that All she has to say is when

Remember When...

We went on that feild trip to Washington D.C. to save Darfur?

We used to have snowball fights in the old courtyard?

Were our lives crazy dance parties?

Jake Ruoff's Hair was longer than most Girl's?

Football games were on Friday nights, and we could walk the track?

We ordered chinese on top of everything else at POP?

We chanted "Go Home Ackies!"

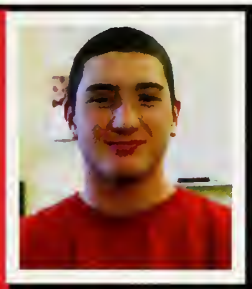
"We had a good season and it was a fun time."

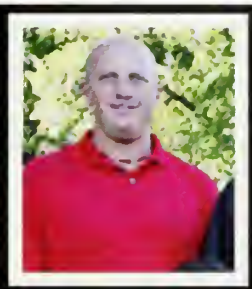
Coach Brian Dempsey

"Overall, this year's golf season was promising. Having no seniors and some new faces at the varsity level, the team was truly tested. Led by junior captains Ryan Benton and Brett Goldman, the boys finished at 8-9, one win short of the state tournament. Although disappointed with the overall record of the season, the team proved to be a contender in every match. Several players improved their games and everyone is optimistic toward next season and all the returning players."



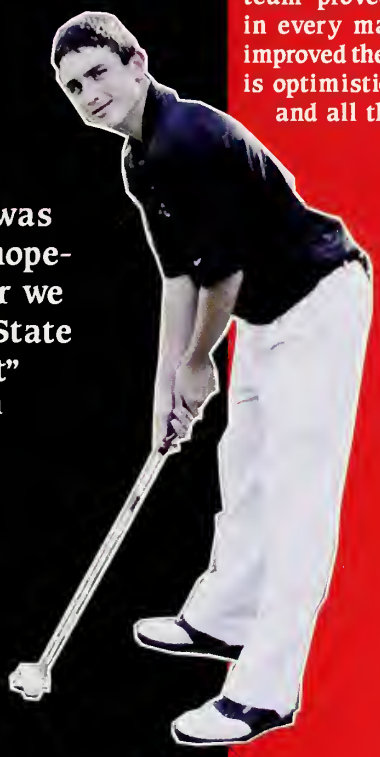
Greg Flemming

"It was a fun season and everyone had a good time"



Coach Scott Benton

The golf team exceeded all expectations and it was a great privilege to coach such fine athletes like themselves."



"The season was awesome and hopefully next year we can make the State Tournament"

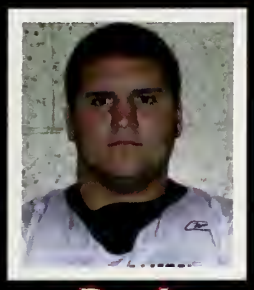
VARSITY FOOTBALL

Coach Sean Clifford

"The 2007 Panther Football team faced adversity and challenges. Captains TJ White, TJ Lazarski Randy Bartlett along with JR Mannetta led the team. The defense which had many Juniors playing due to injuries was led by Seniors Mannetta, Lazarski and Pat Baron up front with White and Smith leading the backers and secondary. Kyle Armstrong's passing to Jeff Smith and Noel James provided most of the offense and Joe Griffin led the backs scoring 4 TDs."



Randy Bartlett

"We persevered through the tough times, stuck together as a team, and formed unbreakable friendships. Congratulations Panther football 07."

TJ White

"Even with our injuries I feel that we have worked hard, and have had a successful season. Playing football for W-H has been a fun ride, and I wouldn't trade it for anything."

TJ Lazarski

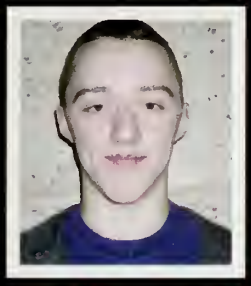
Bob Rodgers

"This year's team has been defined by hard work and effort. Only 2 players on the team had ever played in a varsity game before this year and that inexperience has made it difficult to finish off opponents. Even still, it has been a great experience to work with such a dedicated group whose passion for basketball and our team is unquestioned. Every day they live up to our team theme of, "Mean It!"



Lance Saletnik

"So far this season has been a rough and rocky start but at the same time, we are progressing and growing as a team each day and becoming more and more close. W e just have to take one game at a time and eventually we will be successful."

BOYS BASKETBALL

"This track season went really well. Everyone worked hard and we achieved our goal of winning the ACL title. It was good to be apart of such a fun and successful team".

Coach Brendon O'Leary (Bubba)

"A lot of this year's success can be attributed to the great leadership of our senior class, as they showed the underclassmen what it takes to be successful."

"We did really good, we had a young team and a lot of girls did great. We are ACL Champs leaving this league and that's awesome"

You are my Sunshine...my only Sunshine.
You make me happy when skies are grey (when skies are grey).
You'll never know, dear, how much I love you.
Please don't take my Sunshine away. (bump, bump, bump-bump)

I'm just not sure when or how it happened, but in the blink of an eye, you grew from a tiny mini-me, to the beautiful young women you are fast becoming today.
Although I hope we will always be friends...as we age together,
I do want you to know it has been a privilege to be your mom.
You helped me be a better person than I otherwise would have been

You're a wonderful daughter, a caring and fun big sister... surrounded by many friends...you are honest and true.
When you turn 21, both the first time, and the 2nd time
(as I am now)... we will hug, reflect, and giggle...over good times, greater memories and pride in our family and to your success.
Of that I am sure.

We all Love you so very much, and are so proud of you...
Bring on tomorrow!

Love forever,
Mom, Bryan and Tami
